Sub: KUHS - Exam General (A) - Cases reporting before the M&LEC with respect to the students taken their written answer booklets with them when leaving the examination hall after the completion of University Theory Examinations- issuance of directions- reg

Ref: 1. Minutes of 161th M&LEC meeting held on 24.09.2024.

The Malpractices & Lapses Enquiry Committee (M&LEC) has observed a rise in the number of reported cases where students have taken their written answer booklets with them when leaving the examination hall, after the completion of University Theory Examinations. In light of this findings , it is hereby directed that all institutions affiliated to Kerala University of Health Sciences (KUHS) shall ensure that candidates attending the University Theory Examinations shall not be allowed to leave the examination hall until it is confirmed that all written answer booklets have been properly collected back by the Invigilators. Taking answer booklets outside the hall shall lead to penalization, including the cancellation of the examinations written by the candidates. The Chief Superintendent and invigilators assigned duty of University Examinations shall also be directed to be more vigilant in the matter and also for making further necessary arrangements to retrieve the Answerbooks on completion of the examination.
