- Ref: 1. University Circular of even No. dated 18.05.2023
2. University Circular of even No. dated 19.05.2023

In order to give more clarification to the directions issued vide circulars cited, the following guidelines are issued for compliance.

Vide circulars referred above, it was informed that University has decided to permit those MBBS students who were admitted in Medical Colleges during the academic year 2019-2020 and could not pass their first professional MBBS examination to register for first Professional MBBS Degree Supplementary Examination, which shall be commencing on 29.05.2023. Their eligibility for appearing the above examination shall be taken from the last appeared regular examination.

It is also directed that the registration portal for the forth coming First Professional MBBS supplementary Examinations (SAY) will be open for those candidates of the above batch who are prepared to appear for this examination.

If any of the students are not confident in appearing for the forth coming supplementary examination and want to retain their mercy chance, they will be permitted to appear for First Professional MBBS Examination along with the next regular examination. However, they will have to acquire sufficient attendance and internal marks to appear for this examination like other regular MBBS students.

All principals/HoI are hereby requested to appoint one to one mentor (Faculty) each for each failed subject of the student and to prepare all students for the forth coming regular I MBBS examination provided the student is opting for that examination. For those students, new attendance and internal examination marks will be counted for eligibility as per the reports of the Principals.

This shall be a one-time measure and may not be treated as a precedence for future.
