

Research methodology training

The school of Health Policy and Planning Studies (KUHS) ,Thiruvananthapuram is planning to organize a series of Research Methodology training programmes for post graduate students registered under the university. The programme will be for a duration of 2 days and in small batches of 20 each. The participants need to bear the expenses towards transport and accommodation. Refreshments (lunch and tea) will be provided by the organizers.

For registration contact the following E- mail - pgresearch@kuhs.ac.in