

Q.P. Code: 201292

Reg. no.:

MD (Hom) Part II Degree Examination, November 2014

(2011 Scheme)

Specialty: Homoeopathic Philosophy

Homoeopathic Philosophy - Paper I

Time: 3 Hours

Total Marks: 100

- Answer all questions

Essays

(4x20=80)

1. What is drug proving and explain in detail the procedures of drug proving. What are the advantages and disadvantages of homoeopathic drug proving in modern time
2. Explain in detail the evolution of fundamental laws of homoeopathy
3. What are intermittent diseases. Mention its type and discuss the management of intermittent diseases along with diet and regimen.
4. Discuss the different causes of diseases in homoeopathy. Explain its importance and management in homoeopathy with suitable examples.

Short notes:

(4x5=20)

5. Pseudo chronic diseases and homoeopathic management
6. Therapeutic methods given in introduction of organon of medicine
7. Different routes of administration of homoeopathic medicines
8. Case taking and treatment of hypochondriac patient
