

First Post Basic B.Sc Nursing Examinations-October 2012

MATERNAL NURSING

Time: 3 Hours

Total Marks: 75,

- Answer all questions

Essay: (20)

1. Mrs. X. has delivered a female baby, weighing 3 kg , 12 hours ago. She had a full term normal delivery with right mediolateral episiotomy .
 - Explain the nursing assessment of Mrs. X.
 - Describe the nursing care to be provided for Mrs X.
 - List the indications for episiotomy

(8+8+4=20)

Short notes: (5x7=35)

2. Normal female pelvis
3. Resuscitation of the newborn
4. Nurse's responsibility in oxytocin administration
5. Antenatal advice in the third trimester of pregnancy
6. Causes of Infertility in women

Differentiate between: (5x3=15)

- | | |
|------------------------------------|----------------------------------|
| 7. Maternal morbidity | Maternal mortality |
| 8. Presumptive signs of pregnancy | Positive signs of pregnancy |
| 9. First stage of labour | Second stage of labour |
| 10. Physiological jaundice | Pathological jaundice |
| 11. Primary postpartum haemorrhage | Secondary postpartum haemorrhage |

Define the following: (5x1=5)

12. Puerperium
13. Episiotomy
14. Ectopic pregnancy
15. Anemia in pregnancy
16. Normal labour